Dear Parishioners:

October seems to have flown past, and here we are now embarked on November, soon it will be Thanksgiving, then Advent, then the great joy of Christmas, and a new year....We've got some good stuff to do though as we speed through our days. The greatest thing we can do is slow down — and pray. In the month of November we begin by celebrating our fellowship with the Saints, and then continue celebrating and praying for all our beloved dead on the Feast of All Souls, and we keep them in mind all of November. Next Friday we remember Veterans, and that weekend we'll have a special second collection for our Armed Forces Chaplains. In between times we'll perform our civic duty and vote. I hope you've had time to pray a lot of rosaries in October, and are continuing to pray the rosary for ourselves and our country — we all need it.

Love and Peace,

Fr. Liam Quinlan

COLLECTION FOR THE ARCHDIOCESE FOR THE MILITARY SERVICES, USA

The Bishop has requested a special collection in aid of our Chaplaincy to the Military. That collection will be taken up next weekend - since we will be celebrating Veterans Day. You will find envelopes for the collection on the table in the back.

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"Those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage." Jesus' response to the Sadducees regarding their question about the resurrection of the dead actually raises another question for us: what about marriage in heaven? We understand marriage to be "until death do us part," but what exactly becomes of this special relationship in the afterlife?

Pope Francis gave a homily on this Gospel passage in which he discussed the mysterious transformation that will take place for those who enter into the joy of heaven. The Holy Father tells us, Jesus explains that "life after death does not have the same parameters as our earthly life. Eternal life is another life, in another dimension where, among other things, there will be no marriage... The life that God prepares for us is not a mere embellishment of the present one: it surpasses our imagination, for God continually amazes us with his love and mercy" (Angelus, November 10, 2013).

An interesting interpretation of this comes from Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa, the Preacher of the Papal Household, who said "marriage does not come to a complete end at death but is transfigured" (Homily, November 10, 2006). Catholic author Stephen Ray described it this way in a letter to his mother who was grieving the loss of her husband: "We cannot understand our new spiritual bodies and heavenly existence any more than a caterpillar can comprehend what it will be like to be a butterfly. We cannot anticipate how personal relationships will flower in glory any more than [an] acorn can anticipate standing 50 feet tall." Whatever it will be, we can trust it will be wonderful!
