

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.

This altar stands in the place where the Lord rose from the dead. I offered mass on it for your intentions when I was in Jerusalem at the New Year.

*I prefer death in Christ Jesus to power over the farthest limits of the earth.
 He who died in place of us is the one object of my quest.
 He who rose for our sakes is my one desire. ~ St. Ignatius of Antioch*

Dear Parishioners:

He is truly Risen!
 Having made our journey through the 40 days of Lent, let us now show our Easter joy in all we do. Saint Ignatius of Antioch, wrote to his friend Saint Polycarp, about what we are to do now—it is as true now as it was 1900 years ago:

*Be more zealous than you are now. Learn to understand the times.
 Expect Him to come who is above time, the timeless one, the invisible one who became visible for our sake, the untouched one,
 the one beyond suffering who came to suffer for us, who in every way endured for our sake.
 Toil together, fight, run, suffer, rest, and rise up together as God's stewards, companions of His table, and His servants! Please Him who is your warlord,*

Him from whom you will also receive your soldier's pay.

Let none of you desert the flag! Let your baptism remain your armor, faith your helmet, love your spear, patience your weapon.

Stay the course of glory, and pray for great spiritual gifts at Pentecost!

Love, Peace, and Happy Easter!

Fr. Liam Quinlan

*We remember in our prayers,
Meghan Butler
 beloved Grand-daughter of Joe Butler
 May she rest in the peace of Heaven.*
